ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF SAFE PATIENT HANDLING & MOBILITY (SPHM)

The International Journal of Safe Patient Handling & Mobility (SPHM) is a peer reviewed journal focused on bringing together the ever growing body of knowledge on SPHM worldwide. Published quarterly, the journal is available online only with individual and institutional access subscription options. The online publication allows many opportunities for interactivity in articles and advertisements. It is an ideal read for healthcare professionals involved with the planning, implementation, and evaluation of an SPHM program, such as facility coordinators, SPHM committee members, unit peer leaders, and department managers. The journal also provides an excellent source of reference for authors, researchers, educators, and all individuals seeking current trends in SPHM. The International Journal of SPHM is owned by Visioning Publishers LLC.

NEW ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Two-page Spread Advertorial

$2500

This is a focused piece to highlight a unique task/challenge and should include a short introduction with an explanation of how the solution addresses the challenge and pictures to illustrate the process. Format and best practices to be discussed with editor prior to approval. Published in specific journal issue. Exclusive: One per journal issue.

Case Study Demonstrations

One page: $1850
Two pages: $2500

One or two page option and should follow guidelines from editor to include patient, facility, and caregiver demographics, background on the case, equipment/techniques used, and outcomes achieved. Photographs are encouraged but must follow HIPPA guidelines. Published in specific journal issue. Exclusive: One per journal issue.

SPHM Quick Tips
